FAR SIDE, TURTLE BAY, FALMOUTH, ANTIGUA

PRICE US$1,200,000

Located high on the hillside near the entrance to Falmouth Harbour and overlooking both the harbour and views to the open sea.

Turtle Bay is a quiet residential area a few minutes drive from the convenience of Falmouth and the bars, restaurants and entertainment of English Harbour.

The World Heritage site of Nelson's Dockyard, the only surviving Georgian working dockyard and former home to the Royal Navy with its historic Georgian buildings, is just a few minutes away as are some of Antigua's best beaches.

The house faces the cool prevailing trade wind breezes.

Farside is a popular holiday rental but also a family home with extensive accommodation plus a one bedroom detached cottage, all standing in about one and a half acres of cultivated gardens.

Potential to add cottages or other property in the extensive gardens.

The main accommodation comprises 5/6 bedrooms, 3 bathroom, kitchen/living room, verandas, ample storage, stylish swimming pool and deck area. The kitchen has been extensively refitted with local hand made units and the large covered veranda is ideal for al fresco dining.
